Welcome to the where to buy section of your account dashboard. Here you can manage the details of all your trading locations. Each address can have its own details and will be displayed in the Where To Buy Section for consumers to view. As this is an effective way of letting customers know about you and your services we do suggest it is kept up to date. Once Details are submitted they will be approved and uploaded to the main section of the website.

Edit Where To Buy Profile

Please amend or enter the details you wish to display to customers looking for a supplier of our products. The company profile box allows you to add information about your company for prospective customers to read. If your showroom hours differ to your trading hours please tick the box under the opening hours and the relevant message will be displayed.

A unique feature to our where to buy feature is the ability for you to upload pictures promoting your company, showroom and of course the products you have on display from our range. We believe this can be a very powerful marketing tool as prospective customers are more likely to contact you or visit you when they can see you are a specialist lighting supplier. Simply click on the gallery tab below and drag and drop your photos straight onto the site. All details will be sent for approval once submitted and will be reviewed within 24hrs.
