This collection boasts a more rigid structure compared to other collections in this range. A primary round or square base creates 2 very distinct designs while the twisted black and silver Aluminium tubing creates sparkle throughout the product. The overall neutral design of these products makes them suitable for almost any interior design. All items are complete with in-line switches.

... siente la luz is a phrase which has decorated and accompanied our image since the founding of MANTRA.

... siente la luz transmits the "philosophy" which inspires our way of working. Our collections are not just a source of lighting, they are objects of elegant simplicity and beauty without excess ostentation or gaudy style. The graceful streamlined designs radiate a unique personality which makes them stand out from their contemporaries. Consequently, it is part of the Mantra ethos to trust in the craftsmanship and creativity of our designers to produce items with distinctive appearance and character, as we efficiently and effectively illuminate your space.

LUXRAM

Luxram is a manufacturer of professional lamps and bulbs founded in 1951. Global recognition has come from the philosophy of quality for everything. Strict quality controls, state of the art production facilities, impressive packaging, stringent testing and procedures and extensive expenditure on research and development are just some of the core elements behind Luxram's success. Luxram has now become a pioneer in designing innovative LED lamps and offer the most comprehensive range currently available.

Deco represents our portfolio of decorative lighting fixtures and custom products to transform countless spaces at competitive pricing without comprising quality. The design team ensures that the products serve the most current demands as well as offering more traditional solutions. Utilising our wide range of capabilities in a variety of materials and production techniques enables us to meet your design needs. Our creative ranges have provided illumination in various hospitality, retail and residential projects. By combining trends and styles new possibilities are born.

The Techtouch range, produced by Luxram, takes our vast experience and expertise of producing light sources and transforms it into a concise range of complete luminaires. Our 'know how' in obtaining optimum performance by ensuring the best operating conditions for the light source is creating a rapidly expanding range of fixtures with a primary focus on reliability whilst ensuring value for money.
